Integrating Your ColdFusion App with the Thinkific Platform

What is Thinkific?

- Thinkific is an on-line training platform that allows course creators to develop and sell online courses.
- Thinkific offers many features, including...
  - Easy to use API for developers to integrate web applications with the Thinkific Platform
  - Payment processing using PayPal
  - Course completion certificate generation
  - Integrated reporting
  - Live course delivery

Integrating Your ColdFusion App with the Thinkific Platform

Why would I want to integrate my ColdFusion App with the Thinkific platform

- Thinkific does not include the ability to sell companion products with online courses
- Thinkific does not include the ability to perform bulk course purchasing without assigning each student license to the courses purchased.

Do I need an App Partner Account?

The answer is yes, if...

If you are building a custom Thinkific solution to be offered in the Thinkific Marketplace, then yes. This will set you up with your own Thinkific Sandbox account

Do I need an App Partner Account?

The answer for most of us will be no

If you are building a custom integration between your ColdFusion App and Thinkific, you would just need Site Admin account.
