ColdFusion 2023 – Update 24 & ColdFusion 2025 – Update 13

- Release Date: September 8, 2026
- What does it resolve? Resolves critical, important, and moderate vulnerabilities that could lead to arbitrary code execution, arbitrary file system read, privilege escalation, security feature bypass, and memory exposure..
- Be particularly aware of changes to CFStoredProc and other database-related tags – only letters, digits, _, $, #, @, and a dot only where a schema/owner is allowed (for example – no square brackets like [dbo].[myTable] are allowed)
